

William J. Carter
449 Old Highway 31
Flomaton, AL 36441
(251) 370-7634
Josiah60@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE

Seeking a challenging and rewarding position that will enable me to utilize the skills and experience gained from past career opportunities and my education.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Three years experience in Disaster Recovery
- Knowledge of all aspects of Disaster Recovery including but not limited to overall Project Management, Field Supervision, Claims, dumpsite management, equipment operation
- Twenty years experience in the U.S. Army as a leader and Operations Non Commissioned Officer
- Extensive training and experience in physical security and situational awareness
- Two years experience as a Corrections Officer I, working in a State prison system
- Trained in both active and passive security measures
- Maintained high level of safety awareness and accountability of personnel and equipment
- Capable of working individually or with a team
- Experienced problem solver – flexible to meet changing situations
- Received formal recognition of outstanding job performance

PHYSICAL SECURITY

- Was selected as personal security for VIP's based on experience and abilities
- Inspected vehicles and personnel for contraband
- Trained and worked as Team Leader in volatile conditions with outstanding results
- Planned, managed and supervised security operations
- Instructor for combatives including hand to hand bayonet and knife techniques
- Fired expert with various pistols, rifles and shotguns
- Handgun instructor with Upper Iowa University
- Competed in combat handgun meets

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

- Participated in Upper Management meetings as well as conducted meetings with employees
- Planned and conducted upper level briefing
- Conducted training classes for large and small groups on a variety of subjects
- Supervised a team of 45 members. Evaluated individual and team performance

FIRST AID

- Certified in First Aid and CPR
- Trained to recognize and treat for shock
- Trained to recognize and categorize patients based on injuries
- Trained to evaluate and treat wounds often found in combat situations
- Certified Combat Life Saver

WORK EXPERIENCE

2004 – Present Bamaco, Inc., 6869 Highway 100 W., Bunnell, FL 32110

Began employment as Dump Site Supervisor and was later to promoted to Field Supervisor, and then to Project Manager. Trained in all aspects of disaster recovery.

2002-2004 AL Dept. of Corrections, Highway 21, Atmore, AL 36502

Corrections Officer I. Responsibilities included the custody and rehabilitation of inmates, supervision of groups on work details and in recreation areas.

2000- 2001 LaFarge Concrete, Phoenix City, AL

Lead Mechanic. Conducted services on concrete trucks, scheduled vehicle services, supervised mechanics, and conducted spot checks on work performed to ensure quality of work.

1991-1999 U.S. Army

Ranger Instructor/Writer. Instructor for patrolling, combatives, Military Operations in Urban Terrain, demolitions and land navigation. Processed and carried secret and NATO secret material. Provided personal security for Two Star and equivalent. Planned and conducted airborne operations for 900 man unit, I.D. mark and guide in helicopter and fixed wing aircraft for airborne and air re-supply operations. Responsible for training and welfare of 10 man element and equipment. Deployed to numerous locations on both training and real world situations. Instructor for survival and patrolling techniques, responsible for supervising and monitoring training of new instructors. Conducted live patrols on DMZ in Korea. Responsible for training new personnel on rules of engagement.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- Alabama Dept. of Corrections Academy, Selma, AL. Twelve weeks live-in.
- General Studies, Troy State University, 72 credit hours earned.
- Supervisory Development Training Course, U.S. Army. Six weeks live-in.
- Primary Leadership Development Course, U.S. Army. Six weeks live-in.
- Numerous combat and leadership schools, U. S. Army.

REFERENCES

Pastor Timothy Wetzel
7740 Highway 99N
Century, FL 32535
(850) 327-6860

Mr. David Loyd
P.O. Box 372
Nevada, MO 64772
(417) 448-7651

Mr. Bill Phillips
5835 Old Segain-Luling Rd.
Segain, TX 78155
(830) 305-1723